Dedication

It is with deepest respect and gratitude that we dedicate the 1963 PANTHER to Mr. J. S. Waters, who has devoted a large part of his life to our education, serving most capably as Superintendent of Chatham County Schools for the past twenty-three years, retiring last year.

Surely his thoughtful compliments on our progress, his witty jokes and sparkling personality, and his devotion to his duties to serve others will assure Mr. Waters an honorable spot among "Our Never-to-be-Forgotten Memories."

Class History

Say! Guess what? We are finally Seniors. Oh! Did it seem as if we would ever make it?

Let us look back through our diary and renew some of the joyous memories we have shared together since we have been in high school.

It all began our freshman year, 1959. Naturally, as freshmen, we were frightened greenhorns in the midst of all the strange doings and changing classes. We soon settled down hard at work with Mr. Phillips as our homeroom teacher. Our class officers were: Clifton Maness, President; John Neil Brown, Vice-President; Linda Beal, Secretary; Charles Hussey, Treasurer. We were very proud to win the polio drive and get a free holiday.

My, time is really passing and we are sophomores already. We had Miss Badgett as our homeroom teacher. We elected these as our class officers: David Hussey, President; Jimmy Brady, Vice-President; Vesta Purvis, Secretary; Johnsie Simmons, Treasurer. We were very proud to have from our room, Vesta Purvis and Wilma Kidd to win the title Harvest King and Queen. Also, we were tickled to win the polio drive again this year. Along with our studies, we had many good times.

Almost before we could say, "Bless my Stars", we were Juniors. We elected as officers the following students: Helen Purvis, President; Rodger Jones, Vice-President; Johnsie Simmons, Secretary; Vesta Purvis, Treasurer. We were very excited about planning and giving the Junior-Senior Banquet on April 27. Our theme was "Under the Magnolias," which we hope was a great success. Mrs. Charlotte Caviness was our homeroom teacher.

Gee Whiz! It seems as though we have flipped the pages of our diary and found ourselves Seniors of 1963. Mrs. Betty Caviness was our homeroom teacher. For our final year of high school we elected as our class officers Vesta Purvis, President; Lucy Moore, Vice-President; Wilma Kidd, Secretary; Rodger Jones, Treasurer. We were very excited to get our classrings and to show them to the underclassmen. We shall never forget the excitement of going to the state fair on the activity bus. With the assistance of Mrs. Betty Caviness, we successfully presented our Senior Play. We attended the Junior-Senior Banquet this year as guests. Whew! Wasn't that a delicious treat?

So this has been our history for the past four years. The time has been very short, but we hope we have lived our days to make the right reflections on our school, our community, and the world around us.

Barbara Hussey,
Class Historian

Class Prophecy

As class prophets, we have used what mystic powers we could summons to help us predict the future of the Seniors of '63. Let it be known that a copy of this prophecy will be placed in the Bennett fall-out shelter where it can be preserved. By 1973, each of our classmates should check by to let us know how accurately we have foretold his future.

Bennett School won the State Championship in Basketball this year. Could it be because of their new coach, Jeannette Baxter? Basketball was always her favorite sport.

Look who is secretary of Beamen Construction Company in Greensboro. None other than Linda Beal. Wonder why she chose that particular company?

Jimmy Brady is now the owner of Cluck Cluck Poultry and egg farm. He always did like baby chicks and to get up eggs.

Who do we see on Broadway? None other than the famous Marie Bray, who is currently doing the Charleston. She always did enjoy dancing.

Barbara Hussey is now a secretary at Josten Class Ring Company. She always did enjoy wearing two class rings.

John Neil Brown is now owner of the ice plant in Sanford. He always liked that place for some reason.

Betty Sue Hussey is now the author of that famous book, "How to Always Keep Quiet." She wrote this book from self-experience.

Mary Sue Jones is now happily married and living near West Moore on a big Poke Berry Farm.

Wilma Kidd is now the owner of one of the world's largest and most famous Beauty Salons in New York. She could always fix people's hair to suit them.

Lucy Moore is now teaching math in one of the largest schools in Florida. Math was her favorite subject in High School.

Larry Brown is now the latest Rip Van Winkle in the movies. He always did enjoy sleeping in class.

Charles Hussey is now the owner of the largest strawberry farm in California.

Nancy Faye Nall is the head nurse of Duke Hospital. To become a nurse was always her greatest goal.

Who do we see teaching English at Central High School? None other than Jeannie Oates. She always knew that grammar!

Brenda Purvis is now happily married to that guy she was determined to get. They have just moved into their new mansion near the sunny-side of Bennett.

Rodger Jones is now a judge of the State Supreme Court. He didn't go to law school just to keep up with Perry Mason.

Who do we see sitting near the president as his own private secretary? None other than Johnsie Simmons. She always did like to keep up with things.

Who is Bennett's latest dog catcher? None other than our own Clifton Maness.

Who do we hear that has just won the World's 600? None other than Russell Maness. He always did like to change those gears.

Who is now the president of Duke University? None other than Vesta Purvis. He always was the leader of the class of '63.

Class Prophets,
Marie Bray
John Neil Brown
